

A 13x13 grayscale heatmap representing a correlation matrix. The x and y axes are labeled from 0 to 12. The diagonal elements are white, indicating a correlation of 1. The off-diagonal elements show varying shades of gray, representing different correlation values. The bottom row (row 12) has red 'P' labels under columns 4 through 12.

